The book collects together three classic novels from 20th century Egyptian author Naguib Mahfouz: Khufu's Wisdom; Rhadopis of Nubia; and Thebes at War. Khufu's Wisdom was a real mixed bag for me. Some of the turns of phrase were a little odd, making me wonder if something had been lost in translation, but others were elegant and well-constructed.

Titles The three novels' Arabic titles are taken from the names of actual streets in Cairo, the city of Mahfouz's childhood and youth. The first novel, Bayn al-Qasrayn, is named after the medieval Cairo street in the Gamaliya district where the strict socially conservative protagonist, Ahmad 'Abd al-Jawad, and his family live.
