"A Zen for Murder" is very well written and the story has lots of suspense and excitement. The setting is on a lovely, peaceful island off Maine, Mooseamuck Island. Most of the residents were born and raised there, but Dom moved there a couple of years ago after retiring from the police force on the mainland.

Although some mention of the first book, A Zen For Murder, occurs in this book, it in no way detracted from the current story. I loved the main characters in this cozy mystery. Claire is a retired psychologist and consultant to the Boston Police. Dominick (Dom) is a retired Boston homicide detective who has teamed up with Claire in the past.

~~A Crabby Killer (Mooseamuck Island, #2) by Leighann Dobbs~~

James Patterson is primarily known for his Alex Cross and Women's Murder Club series. The NYPD Red series, which he co-authors with Marshall Karp, is quietly becoming one of the most favoured by readers and the latest book hits bookshelves this month. Karp is an excellent writer and is one of the best series. Only 6 books in so a great series to read over the holiday season.
