Firm - Integrated Lighting and Electrical Solutions
We know the equipment and we know how it will perform and under what conditions. Our proprietary modeling tools allow us to create design solutions that are cost effective and leave nothing to chance. Design Plus AE, Inc. engineers have experience working with existing spaces or designing entire systems for new buildings. From power distribution to energy management to telecommunications to kitchen systems, they provide a level of detail that few firms can match.

Design Plus AE
*AE Design offers a strong balance of lighting design and electrical engineering expertise. Their integrated approach is baked into their DNA and yields inspired solutions, unlike many electrical engineering firms where the emphasis is on mere code compliance.
