Accession of Albania to the European Union - Wikipedia
Albania is a candidate country following the Brussels European Council of June 2014. In March 2020, the European Union decided to open accession negotiations with Albania. The opening of accession negotiations was the result of Albania's reform efforts in recent years and acknowledgement of the EU for the efforts made and the progress achieved on Albania's accession road.

Albania and the EU - European External Action Service
Albania – along with other Western Balkans countries – was identified as a potential candidate for EU membership during the Thessaloniki European Council summit in June 2003. In 2009, Albania submitted its formal application for EU membership. In its Opinion on Albania's application (in 2010), the Commission assessed that before accession negotiations could be formally opened, Albania still had to achieve a necessary degree of compliance with the membership criteria and in particular to ...
