Schumpeter's Capitalism, Socialism and Democracy is a classic of political and economic philosophy. Although written with a dated and dry prose style it remains relevant for today and can be very much recommended. This particular Kindle edition should, however, be avoided. The good news was that this edition is cheap.

Capitalism, Socialism, and Democracy - Kindle edition by ...

Capitalism, Socialism and Democracy is a seminal work in the field of economic theory by Joseph Schumpeter, a political economist from Austria. The book uses a combination of social science and economic and social theory to propose Schumpeter's now-famous theory of "creative destruction," which he posits is humankind's main industrial mechanism. Published in 1942, at the onset of World War II, it received minimal attention until the postwar period.
