#StuckAtHomeBookClub - Latosik and Larkin Collected Poems Philip Larkin

Collected Poems is the title of a posthumous collection of Philip Larkin's poetry edited by Anthony Thwaite and published by Faber and Faber. He released two notably different editions in 1988 and 2003, the first of which also includes previously unpublished work. Both editions include the contents of Larkin's collections The North Ship, The Less Deceived, The Whitsun Weddings and High Windows, plus other material.

Collected Poems (Larkin) - Wikipedia

The poet and novelist Philip Larkin (1922-1985) worked in various libraries from 1943 and his first collection of poems was `The North Ship' (1945); two novels followed `Jill' (1946) and `A Girl in Winter' (1947) before his next collection of poems `The Less Deceived' (1955).

Philip Larkin Quotes (Author of Collected Poems)

Philip Larkin (1922-1985) is a poet whose very name conjures up a specific persona: the gloomy, death-obsessed and darkly humorous observer of human foibles and failings. The truth, both about the man and his work, is more complex, but the existence of the popular image points to Larkin ' s broader cultural influence, beyond the world of poetry.
