I got three words for you. children will die seriously you wanna open school sir. This is a death trap. That's a load of crap. Listen quarantine is over the kids have to go back. Do you know how hard it's gonna be to socially distant thirty kids in a classroom. That's a joke and you know those school bathrooms don't even have soap.

Now, ~~Don't Go Back to School: A Handbook for Learning Anything~~ is out and is everything I could've wished for when I was in college, an essential piece of cultural literacy, at once tantalizing and practically grounded assurance that success doesn't lie at the end of a single highway but is sprinkled along a thousand alternative paths. Stark describes it as "a radical project, the opposite of reform" — not about fixing school [but] about transforming learning — and making ...
