But this is Dorotheos of Gaza. A shrewd oberver, a master psychologist, an accomplished raconteur, Dorotheos is also a learned man, with a prodigious capacity for assimilating in an organized harmony the wisdom of his predecessors in the life of the Spirit.

Sayings on Apple Books

There are 21 discourses and 30 talks on asceticism, along with letters and what today we'd call FAQs – questions and their answers. Although Dorotheos's writings were intended for monks living in the desert near Gaza in the 6th century, you wouldn't know that from reading his discourses. They aren't esoteric.

Wikipedia*

Though they were delivered by a Palestinian monk over 1400 years ago, the Discourses of Abba Dorotheos speak with refreshing immediacy to Christians in all times and places. In this series of talks given to his monastic disciples, Abba Dorotheos assimilates into a harmonious whole the wisdom of his predecessors in the life of the Spirit, Abba John the Prophet and Abba Barsanuphius.

Although Dorotheos lived in a monastery in Gaza, his works are not only concerned with monastic life. For instance, he taught many lay people who came to Gaza - ordinary Arab, Syriac, and Greek seekers who found his instructions a simple way of living life in Christ.
