Freak Jennifer Hillier

With Freak, the sequel to her debut novel, Creep, Jennifer Hillier has reached new levels of greatness. Freak picks up about a year after the conclusion of Creep. Jerry Isaac is recovered from his near-fatal encounter with Abby Maddox, girlfriend of the late serial killer, Ethan Wolfe. At least on the outside.

Amazon.com: Freak (9781501119248): Hillier, Jennifer: Books

Freak is the follow-up standalone novel to Jennifer Hillier 's debut: Creep and it's a whole new trip to crazy town! You will recognize all the characters but the feel of this story is much more detective fiction/serial killer thriller than the obsessive, psychotic love theme that was Creep.

Freak (Creep, #2) by Jennifer Hillier

Her claim to fame is the envy of every freak on the outside: she ' s the former lover of Ethan Wolfe, the killer who left more than a dozen dead women in his wake and nearly added Puget Sound State professor Sheila Tao to the tally. Now Abby, serving a nine-year sentence for slashing a police officer ' s throat in a moment of rage, has little ...

Freak | Jennifer Hillier

Jennifer Hillier creates a truly scary killer in Abby Maddox, the female version of Hannibal Lecter - smart, cunning and wickedly evil. I was engrossed on page one, couldn't put the book down and breathless at the ending. Be prepared for a late night's reading. Then sleep with the lights on - if you can.
