Helen and Troy's epic Road Trip is A. Lee Martinez's tenth book though all are unique tales so can be read in any order you like. His books are very easy to read, he has a simple yet clear style of writing so it's a nice fit for either teenagers or adults. I have read nearly all of them at this point and he certainly has his own style.

Helen and Troy's Epic Road Quest is a tongue-in-cheek adventure story, set on an alternate Earth where mythology is real and magic and magical creatures are commonplace. The story follows high school students on a quest that was cursed upon them by a god who embodied himself in a ton of raw beef at a fast food burger joint.

Helen began to have second thoughts. A tall, gangly ranger sitting behind a desk perked up at their entrance. She stood, shoved a last bite of a sandwich into her mouth, and held out her hand. "Welcome, welcome," she said after finishing chewing. "Great to have you here. I'm Ranger Grainger. Yes, yes, I know.
