A great review of UK law for those interested. It is very readable and enjoyable as compared to other works in law. Slapper has done a great job in summarizing the UK common law system and explained it's inner workings. An essential read if you have to study anything adjacent or simply reach a common sense understanding of UK law.

Paul used the phrase "works of the law" six times and only within Romans and Galatians. Here's the full list within context: For no human being will be justified in his sight by works of the law, since through the law comes knowledge of sin (Rom 3:20).. For we hold that a man is justified by faith apart from works of law (Rom 3:28).. Yet we know that a man is not justified by works of ...
