IKIGAI Hindi book Summary|Ikigai Kindle Edition Sebastian Marshall
The word IKIGAI comes to us from Japan--land of the samurai, intense death-defying effort, masterful artistry, harmony with nature, and devoting yourself obsessively to a path. Ikigai's closest meaning is raison d'être in French--what one lives for, what makes your life worth living, why you inhale and exhale each breath.

This is how Sebastian describes himself in Ikigai, and it's basically what drew me toward him and this book. I like people who get things done, who move things, who shift views and change perspectives, and Sebastian Marshall is very much this type of person. Sure, he talks much, but he's got much to say.

Amazon.co.uk:Customer reviews: Ikigai

Ikigai is a collection of essays written by Marshall and others that offer tips, motivation, encouragement and insight. I think anyone, in any profession and any situation will find something useful in Ikigai. Another bonus is that Sebastian is giving his share of profits to charity. Personally, I'll be keeping this book, referring to it from time to time when I need motivation or I need help ...
