Imperialism: The Highest Stage of Capitalism. Lenin's Imperialism remains as one of the most important works for understanding the political, economic, and social consequences of global capitalism. Written in 1916 and published in 1917, the pamphlet is a polemic against those "socialists" who, in word or deed, supported their own governments during World War I. Laying bare the expansionary dynamics of capitalism in its monopoly stage, Lenin shows that war is endemic to the system ...
