makes up a sweater. So slow that we know the project is not going to get finished today--it may not get finished for many months or longer--and that allows us to make our peace with the unresolved nature of life. We slow down as we knit. ” — 15 likes

In Praise of Slowness: Challenging the Cult of Speed by ...

In Praise of Slow - I thoroughly enjoyed and found very helpful to remind me to "slow down" - and all the ways in which we hurry up ourselves and our children - how much we are missing by not slowing down. So, - my new rule of thumb, when I feel hurried, slow down and smell the roses and enjoy life more.
