In The Flesh - My Story is a first-person book and novel about the life of Jesus Christ. "It takes a special writer to retell the story of Jesus Christ in Jesus' own voice. Michael Gabriele takes readers into the mind and heart of the fully divine and fully human Jesus. The result is a profound experience of Jesus and his life, death and resurrection."

Libraries in the U.S. (and elsewhere) have legends of these ghastly books, but many of the books turn out to be made from goat and other typical leathers. For instance, the Newberry Library in Chicago is rumored to have a book with call sign Case Wing Y 4902 M27 made from human flesh, made popular by Audrey Niffenegger's The Time Traveler's Wife. According to a specific Q&A about the book, the Newberry explains: "It is the opinion of the conservation staff that the binding material is ...

Almighty God, Christ of the last days, who has appeared to do His work, expresses all truths that purify and save mankind, and all of them are included in The Word Appears in the Flesh. This has fulfilled what is written in the Bible: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God" (Jhn 1:1). As for The Word Appears in the Flesh, this is the first time since the creation of the world that God has addressed all mankind.

A master storyteller and unrivaled visionary, Clive Barker has mixed the real and unreal with the horrible and wonderful in more than twenty years of fantastic fiction. "The Inhuman Condition" is a masterwork of surrealistic terror, recounting tragedy with pragmatism, inspiring panic more than dread and evoking equal parts revulsion and delight.

Mortification of the flesh is an act by which an individual or group seeks to mortify, or put to death, their sinful nature, as a part of the process of sanctification. In Christianity, common forms of mortification that are practiced to this day include fasting, abstinence, as well as pious kneeling. Also common among Christian religious orders in the past were the wearing of sackcloth, as ...
