If you find someone who also views love as a decision, they'll be doing the same thing for you. It's a constant give and take that comes from deciding that each setback is not a full deal breaker, but rather a chance to know and understand your partner better. Treating love as a decision rather than emotion gives you control. It takes away the uncertainty and shows you that yes, love is real.

Love Is Not An Emotion, It's A Decision

This is where love as a decision comes in. God has made the decision to love us. When our sin separated us from Him, He loved us so much that He made a way to bring us back to him. Since Christ can love us as sinners, then by God ' s power that flows in the believer we should also begin to discover this unconditional love for our spouse.
