This faith requires both realism and compassion. We might need to fight our enemies or keep them at a safe remove; but we cannot let hatred, anger, and fear toward them determine our character and our actions. This cleansing of focus is the true purpose of forgiveness. I" ? Krista Tippet, Speaking of Faith

Speaking of Faith Quotes by Krista Tippet

When Krista spoke with him in 2010, he modeled a life-giving, imagination-opening faithfulness to what some might see as contradictory callings: How to be true to one's own convictions while also honoring the sacred and civilizational calling to shared life — indeed, to love the stranger?
