The Art of Fiction was a response to remarks by English critic Walter Besant, who wrote an article that literally attempted to lay down the "laws of fiction." For instance, Besant insisted that novelists should confine themselves to their own experience: "A young lady brought up in a quiet country village should avoid descriptions of garrison ...

The Art of Fiction by David Lodge is a great little book covering 50 literary devices, such as Suspense, Point of View, Stream of Consciousness, Time-Shift, Repetition and Magic Realist. It is a very good learning resource for students and the general reader alike, as it informs them how writers use their craft to create the works

The Illustrated Art of War enlivens Thomas Cleary's complete translation, including commentaries, with full-color reproductions of paintings and statuary from China and Japan. Talk about martial art--these depictions show full battles scenes, the Chinese god of war, weaponry, processions--even an ancient map.
