face, especially when they first begin to work with galleries and start to establish their art business. It's easy to see by reading art business articles and books on art marketing that the opinions of the experts on how to price your artwork vary.

How to Price Your Artwork: This Formula Makes it Easy

The most common variable based pricing strategy for art is $X per square inch. For example, if I had a painting which is 12x16 inches and I wanted to charge $2 per square inch, the price of the painting would be $384 (12x16x$2). All you need to do is come up with a variable price which you will charge.
