The Case for Faith examines two questions that challenge the faith of Christians: 1) Why is Jesus the only path to God? and 2) How could a loving God allow evil in the world? The questions are presented in a context that suggests the discussion might help Christians offer answers to these questions to others that are skeptical of the Christian faith.

THE Gift Relationship represented the results of a significant study of nearly 4000 British blood donors, and the examination of the provisions made by the United States and the UK to ensure supplies of blood met medical and scientific needs. It proved a critical and unexpected commercial success: The New York Times ranked it as one of the ten most important books of the year.
