The Chronicles of Amber: Volume I by Roger Zelazny

A worthy set off sequels; the "Chronicles of Amber Volume II" picks up right where Volume I leaves off and completes the imaginative story arc of Corwin and the land of Shadows that lie between Chaos and the one true reality, Amber. An easy, fun read that bears re-reading multiple times over decades (which I have done).

I wish Zelazny had done more with Benedict and Julian; both characters you only see enough of to make them tantalizing.

They have also been released in a single volume called The Great Book of Amber .The first five novels were also released in a two volume set called The Chronicles of Amber Volume One which contained the first two novels and The Chronicles of Amber Volume Two which contained novels three though five.
