This a wonderful edition of Claudine all in one handy volume. The quality of the paper and print are nice and it handles easily. Jacqueline Schumann's exquisite cover illustrations bring the spirit of Colette's works right to you. I sometimes go back and reread a passage here and there just for the pleasure of thinking about Claudine.

Claudine grows from a schoolgirl with her first crushes to a married woman coming to terms with her own sexuality and independence while struggling to keep her marriage to her adored and adoring husband together. This is a very French collection so if you've loved Colette's Gigi or the Cheri novels then these are highly recommended.
