The above is the first line of the first chapter of The Hunter, the first Parker novel by Donald E. Westlake writing as Richard Stark. Mr. Westlake told an interviewer: "All fiction starts with language, what kind of language do you use - starts with the language, then goes to the story, then goes to the people."

The Hunter (Parker, #1) by Richard Stark

One of THE Best 'Parker' stories in the entire series. I have read MANY crime novels and short stories. No-one - I mean NO-ONE, writes better crime stories than Richard Stark (aka Donald Westlake). The way he writes engages the reader like no other I have encountered.
