There wasnt anything to dislike or criticise about The Ninth Step because it was totally brilliant from start to finish as are all of Mark Dawsons John Milton stories. The Ninth Step is very much about John Milton's struggle with Step 9. This book, at least the last half, has constant action and suspense. I still prefer Mark Dawson's Beatrix Rose series to the John Milton series, but since Rose died in book 3 of the series there will be no more. I recommend this book for those who like action and suspense thrillers.
