Bitten is more than just a werewolf book. Yes, it follows the story of a werewolf named Elena and the trials and tribulations of her pack.

There's plenty of action and sex. But what is so exceptional about this book is the complex emotions invoked by our main character.

Elena never wanted to be werewolf.

The Werewolf is a hidden jewel and a terror classic, printed back in 1896. The turn-of-the-century publication follows White Fell, a housewife who hides her animal character. If you're searching for a gripping novel about werewolves that is not gory, check out this one. Bitten by Kelley Armstrong
